Why a Field Staffing May Be Initiated

- Student is not prepared for field placement
- Student fails to meet standards for ethical professional practice
- Agency requests termination of placement
- Agency is unable to provide an appropriate educational opportunity
- Student health condition or impairment

Please note that these are only the most common reasons for a Field Staffing. The meeting may be called for other reasons.