Stı	ıd	ρr	nt l	N	lai	m	Р
JU	Ju	CI	IL	I۷	а		c

Date Completed:

Ethics and Legal Rights

Ethical practice is considered a cornerstone of the field of Social Work. The National Association of Social Work's (NASW) Code of Ethics provides ethical standards to which social workers are bound. It is important for all workers to understand the characteristics and legal rights of the clients they serve.

1.	Read the NASW Code of Ethics, paying particular attention to how these standards may apply
	to your practice with children and families.

	to your practice with children and families.
2.	How will you honor the following NASW core values in your child welfare practice?
	a.	Service:
	b.	Social Justice:
	C.	Dignity and Worth of the Person:
	d.	Importance of Human Relationships:
	e.	Integrity:
	f.	Competence:

3.	Read the Best Practice Indicators located in the resource section of the SR Hub. Write a paragraph on why it is mportant for DHR workers to follow these ethical guidelines, noting anything that stood out to you as you read	d:
_
4.	Read the Rights of Parents and Children located in the resource section of the SR Hub and answer the ollowing questions:
	a. What legal rights do parents retain even after their children have been removed from their custody?
	b. How will you ensure that the rights of the parents you work with will be protected?
	ed the following with my supervisor regarding the NASW Code of Ethics, Best Practice Indicators and the rugii a		